Corrado Mora

“Corrado Mora always gives more than his best to help clients fully realise the most apt ways to effectively be unlocking problems and solving the dispute.”

Overview

Corrado's practice contains well over 1,200 cases many of which concern matters including property, delicate and complex contract disputes, highly valued international commercial disputes involving top-rank businesses, clinical/medical malpractice, IP, technology, defamation, among the others.

Most cases he helped his clients to settle involve difficult negotiations, a plurality of stakes, multi-party contributions and a high presence of personal and emotional issues, with rooted conflicts.

Corrado Mora is CEDR Accredited (2011), FCI Arb (Med.), CI Arb Accr. (2011). He lives in Verona, Italy, where he practices as a mediator in civil and commercial disputes, a mediation trainer and as a lawyer.

Corrado is a member of the Panels of Neutrals of both National (CAM-The National and International Chamber of Arbitration of Milan, ARERA and CoReCom Lombardia - Italian Regulatory Authorities for Energy and Telecommunications; CAMOIM-Milan Arb.Med. Centre of Chartered Engineers; inter alia) and International (CEDR, London; CPR, New York; Mediation Centre Dubai; i.a.) top-ranked Mediation Providers.

Professional Background

Corrado also serves as a Community Mediator in Bologna, Reggio Emilia and Ferrara. He chairs the Mediation Commission of the Azienda Ospedaliera of Padua (Clinical/Medical Negligence Disputes).

He regularly teaches, trains and lectures on Mediation, Negotiation and Mediation Advocacy techniques in collaboration with high-level training providers both Italian (Universita' Statale, Milan; ISDACI, Milan; ADR Quadra, Treviso; CAM, Milan; i.a.) and International (UN-United Nations Organization, New York; DHBW, Ravensburg; CMAP, Paris; i.a.).

He's member of the CIArb AFL-Approved Faculty List (since 2015, with trainings in Madrid, Kuala Lumpur, Izmir, Barcelona, Istanbul, Dubai, Vilnius, Warsaw, i.a.; and developing trainings for the ICRC-International Committee of the Red Cross) and is Regional Pathway Leader for the European Branch.

Corrado teaches Negotiation and Mediation at the University of Trento–School of Law (since 2011); He regularly serves as Mediation Skills Assessor both in Italy and internationally.
