

Independent Adjudication for Customers Referenceline Application Form

What is this Application for?

- This application form is for a customer to bring a claim against a company which subscribes to CEDR either directly or by membership of a trade or membership body.
- Customers may apply if they have not been able to resolve the complaint directly with the company/trade body.
- The application form will ask you for the details needed to understand what you would like the company to do and to help an adjudicator decide your dispute.

What do I need to do?

- The outcome of this adjudication will be contractually binding on both parties if the customer chooses to accept the findings of the adjudicator. Please read the Scheme Rules carefully before you fill in and return this form. They should be attached to this application form and can also be found on the CEDR website.
- Fill in the application form giving as much information as you can.
- It may take you some time to go through the application form and to get all your facts together, but having all the information will help us assess your case fairly.
- This process is conducted entirely in writing.
- You must ensure that you provide sufficient information and supporting evidence to substantiate your claim.

Before you can make an application you must:

- First use and exhaust the company's own complaints procedure.
- Refer the matter to the relevant trade or membership body if so advised.
- Ensure you have understood the adjudication process fully.

Please let us know if you have any practical needs where we could help – for example with information in another format (e.g. larger print, another language, etc.). If you require assistance in completing this form please contact CEDR:
