Part III

Mediation Terms and Conditions

IT IS AGREED THAT:

Mediation Agreement

1. The contract for the mediation will come into existence between Party A, Party B, the Mediator(s) and CEDR on the date that CEDR sends out a confirmation email to the Parties, confirming the Mediation is booked with a Mediator(s) on a date agreed by the parties, which shall be after CEDR has received the full mediation fee from Party A and Party B and each party has confirmed to CEDR its agreement to the Mediation and these Mediation Terms and Conditions by signing Part V below.

The Mediation

2. Party A and Party B agree to attempt in good faith to settle their dispute at the Mediation. The Mediator agrees to conduct and Party A and/or Party B agree to participate in the Mediation in accordance with this agreement to mediate in a manner consistent with the current version of the CEDR Model Mediation Procedure and the CEDR Code of Conduct for Third Party Neutrals.
3. The Mediation will be conducted virtually using Zoom as the communications service provider, unless the Parties agree otherwise. The use of Zoom or any other communication service provider such as, but not limited to, Microsoft Teams, Bluejeans, Google Meet, Skype for Business or Webex will be governed by that communication service providers terms and conditions. It is the responsibility of the Party A and Party B each, to review those terms and conditions in advance of the mediation. CEDR makes no representations in relation to the communication service provider's terms of service.
4. For the purposes of the Mediation, the Mediator shall act as the "Host" for the purposes of Zoom or any other communications service provider. In fulfilling this role, the Mediator will retain control of the communications service provider during the Mediations.
5. The Mediation will begin from the moment that the Mediator first communicates with either of the Parties and will continue until the date agreed by the Mediator and the Parties.

Fees

6. The Parties agree to pay the fees as set out below based on the value of their dispute and to share all fees and expenses unless otherwise expressly agreed between them. The fees are set out in GBP and EUR and the conversion rate used is as published by Bloomberg on the first day of each quarter. The currency payable will be based on where the party is located.

7. Fees are payable within 48 hours of the receipt of this Form from Party B and in advance of the mediation.
8. The Mediator's diary will be held during this 48-hour period. In the event that CEDR does not receive payment then the Mediator's diary may be released and will be available to take other bookings.
9. The Mediation will begin from the moment that the Mediator first communicates with either of the Parties and will continue until the date agreed by the Mediator and the Parties.
10. Should the mediation go beyond the time provided for under the selected service, parties agree to pay hourly rates set out above per party for any additional hours used.
11. Should the parties require the mediator to consider voluminous material or engage in substantial pre-mediation contact, which in the reasonable view of CEDR and or mediator is above the level of preparation time specified above, additional fees may apply. In these circumstances CEDR will seek to agree a suitable fee in negotiation with the parties but if such fee cannot be agreed CEDR may decline to provide the service.
12. All fees quoted are exclusive of VAT or any applicable taxes which will apply at the prevailing rate.
13. Once paid the mediation fee is non-refundable.

14. In the event that CEDR cannot arrange a Mediation on a reasonable date agreed by the parties for any reason, the contract will not come into existence and CEDR will refund any fees paid to CEDR by Party A and/or Party B.

Authority and status

15. The person agreeing to the Mediation and these Mediation Terms and Conditions on behalf of each Party warrants having authority to bind that Party and all other persons present on that Party's behalf at the Mediation to observe these Mediation Terms and Conditions, and also having authority to bind that Party to the terms of any settlement.

Confidentiality and without prejudice status

16. Every person involved in the Mediation:
 - (a) will keep confidential all information arising out of or in connection with the Mediation, including but not limited to communications relating to the set-up and scheduling of the Mediation, the discussions had leading up to and at the Mediation, and terms of any settlement, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing but not including the fact that the Mediation is to take place or has taken place or where disclosure is required by law, or to implement or to enforce terms of settlement or to notify their insurers, insurance brokers and/or accountants;
 - (b) acknowledges that all such information passing between the Parties, the Mediator and/or CEDR, however communicated, is agreed to be without prejudice to any Party's legal position and may not be produced as evidence or disclosed to any judge, arbitrator or other decision-maker in any legal or other formal process, except where otherwise disclosable in law;
 - (c) will not make any attempt to, or make any audio or video recording of any part of the Mediation; and
 - (d) will ensure that only those persons notified in writing by a Party to the Mediator and other Party prior to the commencement of any part of the Mediation may be present in the room where that Party's computer is located.

17. Where a Party privately discloses to the Mediator or CEDR any information in confidence before, during or after the Mediation, the Mediator or CEDR will not disclose that information to any other Party or person without the consent of the Party disclosing it, except under the circumstances provided in Section 8 of the CEDR Model Mediation Procedure. The Parties agree, however, that the Mediator may disclose such information to CEDR provided that such disclosure is made by the Mediator and received by CEDR in confidence.

Liability

18. Nothing in these Mediation Terms and Conditions shall have the effect of excluding or limiting any liability which cannot be excluded or limited in law.
19. Party A and Party B, each agree that CEDR:
 - (a) assumes no responsibility for the conduct of the mediation by the Mediator(s) nor the outcome of the Mediation, including any professional judgments contained therein, and CEDR shall not be liable for loss or damage that may arise from the conduct of the mediation or the outcome of the Mediation;
 - (b) is not liable for any claim in relation to the suitability of the appointment of any Mediator(s); and
 - (c) excludes, to the maximum extent permitted by law, all representations, warranties, conditions and other terms (including the conditions implied by law and the use of reasonable care and skill which, but for this clause 16, might have effect in relation to these Mediation Terms and Conditions) in respect of the Mediator(s), the Mediation and the outcome of the Mediation.
20. Subject to these Mediation Terms and Conditions, in no circumstances shall CEDR be liable to any other party in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) or otherwise howsoever arising or whatever the cause thereof, for
 - (a) any loss of profit;
 - (b) loss of business;
 - (c) loss of reputation;
 - (d) loss of contracts;
 - (e) loss of revenues or anticipated savings; or
 - (f) any special, indirect or consequential damage of any nature
21. The Parties understand that the Mediator and CEDR do not give legal advice and agree that they will not make any claim against the Mediator or CEDR in connection with this Mediation. The Parties will not make an application to call the Mediator or any employee or consultant of CEDR as a witness, nor require them to produce in evidence any records or notes relating to the Mediation, in any litigation, arbitration or other formal process arising out of or in connection with their dispute and the Mediation; nor will the Mediator nor any CEDR employee or consultant act or agree to act as a witness, expert, arbitrator or consultant in any such process. If any Party does make such an application (as listed above), that Party will fully indemnify the Mediator or the employee or consultant of CEDR in respect of any costs any of them incur in resisting and/or responding to such an application, including reimbursement at the Mediator's standard hourly rate for the Mediator's time spent in resisting and/or responding to such an application.
22. Subject to these Mediation Terms and Conditions, CEDR's total liability to the other parties in respect of all losses, costs, claims or expenses arising under or in connection with these Mediation Terms and Conditions, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed a sum equal to the total booking fee paid by Party A and Party B to CEDR under or pursuant to these Mediation Terms and Conditions. This clause shall not limit Party A and/or Party B obligation to pay the booking fee or any other mediation fees.

Settlement formalities

23. No terms of settlement reached at the Mediation will be legally binding until set out in writing and signed by or on behalf of each of the Parties.

Legal status and effect of the Mediation

24. These Mediation Terms and Conditions are governed by the law of England and Wales and the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to decide any matters arising out of or in connection with these Mediation Terms and Conditions and the Mediation.
25. The referral of the dispute to the Mediation does not affect any rights that exist under Article 6 of the European Convention of Human Rights, and if their dispute does not settle through the Mediation, the Parties' right to a fair trial remains unaffected.
