

Aviation Adjudication Application Form

What is this application for?

This application form is for passengers to bring a claim against an airline or airport if they have not been able to resolve the complaint directly with them.

The application form will ask you for the details needed to understand what you would like the airline to do and to help an adjudicator decide your dispute.

What do I need to do?

- Read the Guidance for Passengers fact sheet. If you are unsure of how to answer a question please contact CEDR for guidance
- Fill in the application form giving as much information as you can. If you are claiming for things that have been lost or damaged remember to include any receipts you have
- It may take you some time to go through the application form and to get all your facts together, but having all the information will help CEDR assess your case fairly

You must have already complained to the airline before you can make an application to CEDR.

You can only make an application if you have not been able to settle your dispute with the airline or airport directly after eight weeks has elapsed since you first complained or if the airline/airport has provided you with its final response in relation to the dispute, otherwise known as a final position or deadlock letter.

Please let us know if you have any practical needs where we could help – for example with information in another format (e.g. larger print, Braille etc.) or in another language.

If you require assistance in completing this form please contact CEDR:

8. Payment information

If your claim is 100% unsuccessful you will be asked to pay a contribution of £25 towards the cost of the adjudication. Please note that this is a cost per case and not per passenger. You will not be charged anything if your claim is successful and you will receive 100% of the compensation awarded by the adjudicator.

9. Representative Authority Form

Please note that you and all other passengers on the booking must sign this form below and provide proof of their identities. This proof of identity must clearly display the customer's name and signature, ie. passport / driving license.

I/We hereby give authority for the person named below to represent me/us in my application for CEDR adjudication.

I/We understand and accept that the adjudication will be conducted in accordance with CEDR's Scheme Rules.

I/We understand that it is my/our responsibility to read the available guidance, which can be found on CEDR's website or by contacting the CEDR office, and/or ensure that the representative stated below has done so in order to understand the adjudication process.

I/We understand that, if directed by the adjudicator, the airline/airport will provide any payment of redress directly to me and not to my representative. Each customer will need to provide bank details so that they can be paid directly to a bank account in their name.

I/We acknowledge that each passenger on the booking must sign below and provide a copy of an approved form of identification that displays the passenger's signature (e.g. driving licence, passport).
